

SouthCoast Massachusetts Gives You the Edge

SouthCoast Massachusetts, where the edge of the shore meets the sea, is a technology corridor that leading edge companies like Johnson & Johnson, Mediatech and Acushnet Company, makers of Titleist golf balls, call home.

SouthCoast Business

- Lower cost of doing business
- Pre-permitted sites available in three business parks adjacent to highways
- Fast-track permitting in 60 days
- High-tech incubators, tax incentives and business development assistance
- Productive skilled workforce & access 15,000 college graduates annually
- Established transportation infrastructure
- Collaborative partnerships

SouthCoast Living

The SouthCoast of Massachusetts offers a wonderful quality of life with vibrant historical cities and pastoral seacoast towns and miles of undiscovered, unspoiled beaches. Housing prices are 50% lower than the Boston area.

Call the SouthCoast Development Partnership today and give your business the edge by locating in SouthCoast Massachusetts. Contact Jennifer Menard at 508.999.8412 or visit www.southcoastdev.org

Tom Davis
Greater New Bedford
Industrial Foundation
508.992.2678

Ken Fiola
Fall River Office of Economic Development
508.324.2620

Matt Morrissey
New Bedford Economic Development Council
508.991.3122

